Pharmacy 101

Cough and Cold Products \(Preceptor Key\) Cough and Cold Products \(Student Case\)

Covers practical issues with prescription and over-the-counter cough and cold products. Sample Andehist NR, Triaminic Thin Strips, and Vicks VapoRub products are used in cases to explain ingredient indications, identify duplicate therapy, and provide tips on the safe use of OTC products. This tutorial provides an opportunity for students to develop their therapeutic and patient communication and counseling skills.

Dispensing Insulin \(Preceptor Key\) Dispensing Insulin \(Student Case\)

Covers practical issues with dispensing insulin prescriptions. Sample Humulin R and Lantus prescriptions are used in a case to explain the different type of insulins, review steps in product selection, order entry, and dose calculation, and provide tips for avoiding medication errors or adverse events when dispensing insulin.

My Profile lets you create your own Preceptor Profile, so you can:

- Have your completed Preceptor CE automatically reported to the school(s) of your choice
- Develop a portfolio to document your precepting experience, training, accomplishments, and contributions to the pharmacy profession
- Get targeted precepting opportunities from different schools

Preceptor Training CE meets ACPE guidelines and truly provides practical tips and training to help you be the best preceptor possible.

PL Journal Club helps establish regular, highly educational meetings...without the usual headaches. It's a great APPE tool. The Instructor Key guides the discussion, and the Student Handout provides questions and helpful guidance for analyzing the background materials.

Pharmacy 101 is great for your IPPE students. The Preceptor Key and Student Case provide quality, consistent case-based teaching. Use it to efficiently precept students from multiple schools.

The Preceptor Toolbox provides you with everything needed to make precepting more effective and easier, including:

- Activity Ideas
- Syllabus Examples
- Evaluation Tools
- Sample Assignments
- Student Schedules and more...

These are all ready-made for you so you can print and use them as-needed, or of course feel free to adapt them to your specific needs!
